

THE Sunday Telegraph

FOUR GREAT LIFTOUTS

your space

May 4, 2008

ULTIMATE PROPERTY GUIDE

INSIDE>
MONEY,
CARS
& JOBS
LIFTOUTS

HOME TRUTHS

Bondi apple of Rose's eye

By CAROLINE PIERCE

DAMAGES star Rose Byrne may be happily ensconced in a Manhattan apartment while filming the hit TV show, but that hasn't stopped her casting her eye over digs closer to home. Byrne attorney Ellen Parsons, will see the actress based in New York for a while yet, so her Bondi plans may have to wait.

A little further back from the beach, Andrew Donnola of Smart Landscape Design is selling his Plowman St, North Bondi, semi through goodyer-Donnelley's Jason Pantzer. Recently refurbished, the two-bedroom home is the perfect indoor/outdoor entertainer. It goes to auction on May 17 with a price guide of around $1.1 million.

Ex-Wallaby Nathan Grey has listed his Greycliffe St, Queenscliff, investment property for sale. He has been based in Fukuoka, Japan, house and heading to Western Australia. His newly completed Robertson Rd home has four bedrooms, two bathrooms and loads of living and entertaining space. It goes to auction on May 24 through Anthony Walls of Max Walls International in the $1.8 million plus range.

It's amazing what a bit of harbourside real estate will buy you. In 2005 James and Sarah Mort swapped a car space at Woolloomooloo's Finger Wharf for a fixer-upper at Bingil Bay, 130km south of Cairns. James was a Melbourne developer and Sarah the woman behind the fit-outs for the first series of Mv Restaurant Rules so the Mission@Miss apartments with outdoor terrace and plunge pools. It is sold out. The includes four apartments a level penthouse from $1.35 million.

Two of the in the art deco was the set for Number 96 as many me goodyerDonne der Phillips. U Moncur St, W sold in March unit three sold for $675,000. Bought by 30-something would have been